d) Number of meetings per week __________________________

e) Number of hours per meeting __________________________

Final authorization for transferring credit will be contingent upon the following:

1. The student must submit the following material upon returning to Wesleyan:
   1) all written work
   2) all quizzes and exams
   3) course syllabus indicating: Instructor’s name; Texts / reading list; Basis for evaluation in the course: e.g., amount and type of written work; number of quizzes and exams

2. Upon returning to campus the student will take Wesleyan’s placement exam to prove that he or she qualifies for advancement to the next level. This requirement may also be satisfied by successfully completing the next course in the language sequence. Study on a Wesleyan or Wesleyan-approved program abroad may be used to validate credit.

3. If the course corresponds to the first half of the ampersand sequence of a language course (e.g., first or third semester), credit will be granted only after student has completed that the second half of that sequence (that is, second or fourth semester) at Wesleyan.
