1. Read both chapters.

2. Pick one important economic difference between early telephone and VCRs, and explain how it made the evolution of the technologies different. (There are several differences that you could choose from.)

3. For whatever difference you picked in part 2, give an example of a current-day technology that is more like early telephone and one that is more like VCRs.